November Service Schedule
Sunday services are at 9:30am and 11:00am
Join us for coffee after the service.

November 3: All Souls Day  [Ruth Sewell]
We will have our annual service in which we honor the people we love who are no longer with us. For this service, we wish to share both grief and happy memories. We’ll have a table in the front for pictures, flowers, and mementos that you may to bring to honor your meaningful persons. We invite you to submit names of these individuals to be published in the Sunday bulletin. Please fill out the following form by October 30 to submit names electronically. Late submissions may not be included in the Sunday bulletin.

November 10: With a Vision Comes a Mission...  [Ivie Sorkin, CLM]
Supporting those unique Individuals that have walked the journey, and brought us joy. The Choir and Folk Orchestra will perform.

November 17: The Prodigal Son  [Rev. Jennie Barrington]
With Thanksgiving and other holidays approaching, we will find ourselves at gatherings of extended family, or parties in our workplace or neighborhood. And so we will find ourselves in conversations with some people whose life choices, or values, or beliefs we disagree with. How do we stay in right-relationship with such people? The well-known parable of the Prodigal Son has insights that can help us be in healthy, sustainable relationship in the long run.

November 24: UU Ethnic Bread Communion Service  [Rev. Jennie Barrington]
This is a multi-generational service. For the Sunday before Thanksgiving, many UU congregations hold a “Bread Communion” worship service. Please bring some bread that represents either your ethnic heritage or a family tradition [and also fixings like butter, jam, and cream cheese]. During the service, you will be invited to tell us about your ethnic or family tradition. After the service, we will enjoy the breads and fellowship together. For more information, please see Rev. Jennie’s minister’s column. The Choir will perform.
Minister’s Meditation from Rev. Jennie Barrington

“This is the bread of the earth. The hard labor of our lives, be it physical or mental labor, by which we create and fulfill ourselves. Whether our path upon this earth be rough and barren, or smooth and fruitful, still we need not make that journey totally alone. For the tasks and duties of the earth are made lighter, made more joyous, when we are willing to share them with others, and work diligently side-by-side to make our dreams of earth come true. Let us then break bread together, in a common commitment to the task of making the earth a more peaceful, safe, and abundant place for us all to live.”

The Rev. Richard Kelley

Deliciously, we will have several opportunities to break bread together, and make merry together, this month. The three I am most happily anticipating are the Madrigal Feaste, on the 15th and 16th, and our UU Ethnic Bread Communion Service, on Sunday, November 24, and Thanksgiving at the Fellowship on Thanksgiving Day, November 28 at 2:00pm. What a joy it will be to see many of you at these gatherings, and be able to chat, and listen, and get to know each better.

As I write, I am aware that some of you reading this column are old-timers, and some of you are much newer to UUFWC. To those of you who are long-time members, thank you so much for making me feel so warmly welcomed here! And to those of you who are newer, it’s worth saying that, since I only got here in late July, I am trying to learn about the annual traditions and celebrations here, too. I feel confident that we will all help each other continue to become more oriented, and graciously so.

For the Madrigal Feaste, I will volunteer as a server. I’ll be a Monk. Perhaps I’ll be a Silent Monk, and hold up signs! I can hardly wait to experience the music, dancing, and the Mummers Play. For the Sunday before Thanksgiving, we will have a UU Bread Communion worship service. Please bring some bread that represents either your ethnic heritage or a family tradition [and also fixings like butter, jam, and cream cheese]. During the service, you will be invited to tell us about your ethnic or family tradition. We will then sample the breads after the service, in fellowship together. Intergenerational baking projects are encouraged! Please also email me or call me to tell me that you will bring bread, and which country or family tradition you will share with us. That will help me write the homily for that morning. Lastly, coming to the church on Thanksgiving Day is one of my favorite things to do in a church year. What I bring is baby onions in cream sauce. It is always a chance to have more in-depth conversations than are possible during coffee hours.

So please bake bread and break bread together often this month, especially across generations. And please share the stories and insights you learn with me, and with each other, tenderly.

Rev. Jennie’s November Office Hours

Rev. Jennie’s office hours are Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, from 10:30am to 2:30pm, and by appointment. It is best to contact her first to be sure she is not at a meeting in the wider community. From November 4–10, Rev. Jennie will be on study leave. The best way to contact her is her work email.
From the Board President, David Francis

November is going to see a lot of activity at the UUFWC. A quick glance at the worship tab and the calendar tab on our website www.uufwc.org shows that, along with the holiday sermons covering Samhain, All Souls, Bread Communion, and Thanksgiving, we will host the Madrigal Feast. In addition, there is Zen Meditation, Yoga, Circle Sings, Drumming Circles, Humanist discussions, the men’s group, and so much more. These are aspects of the congregation’s spiritual and social life that a wide variety of committees and dedicated members make happen without the board. We are fortunate to have such an active and dedicated congregation.

Mixed in with the pace of congregational life, activity related to our building expansion is about to speed up. We have now hired the architect, Rothschild Doyno Collaborative, and will begin in earnest the design phase of the project. On October 27 an informational meeting at the UUFWC following will replace the second service. At 11:00am the steering committee will update the congregation on the capital campaign, the design process, and visits by the architect and staff. We will celebrate the progress of our fundraising, check in about the reality of what we can afford to build, and discuss the allocation of our resources. We will be asking you to help us prioritize sanctuary, RE wing, offices, social space, kitchen, storage, bathrooms, green building, and other needs or wants. I look forward to the steering committees update and to hearing your opinions.

With so much going on at the fellowship, the pace of activity can leave some of our friends, members, and staff feeling anxious. When activity levels are elevated and deadlines approach, I always encourage my students (and remind myself) to “trust the process and enjoy the journey”. The Choir recently added a new tool to my tool-box of faith, and I find myself further relaxed and centered by the mantra written by Sarah Dan Jones: “When I breathe in, I breath in peace; When I breathe out, I breathe out love”. Repeated with the rhythm of yoga breaths, I feel we can do anything. So, in conclusion, trust the process and enjoy the journey.

A Message from the Stewardship Committee

“If we don’t change, we don’t grow. If we don’t grow, we aren’t really living.” From Gail Sheehy, journalist and biographer. Her message applies not only to us as individuals, but also to our Fellowship. We are in the midst of many great changes, and though change can be scary, it is also an exciting opportunity for growth in more ways than one. If we all work together and contribute what we can, there is no limit to what we can become.

The Stewardship Team – Mary Wicks, chair; Scot Armstrong, Danni Schantz, Tony Beery, Bonnie Groop, Gene Barnes.

Road Cleanup

The last road cleanup for 2019 is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, November 2 at 9:00am, starting at Shearer Equipment, OH 3 (Cleveland Rd north of Wooster) at Fox Lake.

Watch for a confirmation (or revision) at end of October in a UUFWC e-mail.
Lifespan Religious Education

October was a great example of how Religious Education includes all ages in many different settings. Our fifth Principle of democracy was explored in services, in the RE classroom, and put into action by youth in our local schools. One of the reasons I so love UU Religious Education is this community style approach. Religious Education starts at home with caregivers, extends into our classrooms with volunteer facilitators sharing their wisdom, and all of us learning from each other at services and Fellowship events.

I am looking forward to exploring next month’s theme Mission and Vision. We will be re-visiting the UU ritual of Bread Communion as part of an all-ages service along with Rev. Jennie on November 24th. Hope you can join us!

NOVEMBER
24—Bread Communion All-Ages Service (No RE)

Inspired by UUFWC 8th Grader Eleanor Stormer-Burch’s organizing of the Wooster High School Climate Strike, the EEE class discussed different forms of activism and held their own climate strike in RE class. Thanks to Board Member and RE Facilitator John Waldman for this great idea!

For information about Children’s Religious Education please contact Chelsea Churpek, Director of Religious Education, at chelsea.uufwc@gmail.com For information about Adult Religious Education please contact RE Committee Chair Jo Harper at johannahharper@gmail.com

A big thank you to Deleasa Randall-Griffiths for sharing her storytelling talent and making October’s all-ages service so engaging!
A look back on a busy October in Youth Community!

Youth Community is open to all youth in grades 7-12. UUFWC Youth gather on Sunday Mornings (except MultiGen Service Days). They enjoy social time, plan activities, and participate in service projects.

Fall Service Project Success!
The Youth tackled their first Service Project this October. Thanks to the support of our greater UUFWC Community, they collected oodles of supplies which were donated to our 2 local animal rescue organizations: The Wayne County Dog Shelter and the Humane Society. The Youth also created toys for dogs and cats from recycled towels and clothing during Sunday gathering time and volunteered at the shelters.

Thank you to everyone who donated to “Help the Youth Help the Animals”!!

Pumpkin Carving Party
The Youth had a beautiful Fall afternoon to carve pumpkins, and enjoy snacks, and relax with friends. They topped it off with popcorn and the creepy animated film “Coraline” in the Youth room.

If you would like to learn more about Youth Community, contact Jessica Eikleberry, Youth Ministries Coordinator, at ymc@uufwc.org. Office hours are by appointment.
Music News

“Without music, life would be a mistake.”

Friedrich Nietzsche

There is no Circle Sing in November and December. We will resume in January.

The Madrigal Feast is November 15 & 16. If you would like to participate, contact Jim and Inez Bird or Barbara Moore.

Special Music. We want you to share your musical gifts with us! If you would like to perform special music during the service, please contact Sharon Delgadillo. Solos, Duets, Groups, welcome!

Calling all YOUTH! We would love to have you participate in the musical portion of the Multi Gen services. Please contact Sharon Delgadillo if you are interested!

For information about our regular music groups, please see the Monthly Meetings on Page 11.

Mummers Play at the Madrigal Feaste

The Mummers Play is always a popular part of the Madrigal entertainment. There are still parts available in this year’s play, The Magic Axe, including a flock of little birds, 6 Sword Dancers, two brothers and a sister (the hero of the play). There are no lines to memorize, unless you want them. Please contact Jim Bird ASAP.

Madrigal Feaste, November 15 and 16

This event cannot happen without the help of many hands. We are in need of servers for Saturday evening. There is a sign up sheet in the lobby for servers, as well as other volunteer opportunities, like wenches and kitchen crew, and much more. We appreciate your support and look forward to working with you. If you have questions, contact Jim Byrd or Barb Moore (choir).

Salvation Army Bell Ringing Sign-Up

There are homeless people in Wayne County! They come in from the cold at the shelter provided by the Salvation Army. You can be part of the Fellowship’s support for this shelter by doing some holiday-season bell ringing. We will be at Buehler’s Milltown on the Wednesday and Thursday following Thanksgiving, December 4 and 5. Sign up at the Connections Table beginning Sunday, November 17 and add to the spirit of the season. If you have questions, contact Bert Bishop.

Fellowship Thanksgiving Dinner, November 28

We will host a Thanksgiving Dinner on Thursday, November 28 at 2:00pm. This is intended for members and friends who do not have extended family with them for the holiday, and wish to join friends at the UUFWC.

Everyone is asked to help with the set-up (on Wednesday afternoon) or preparation and cleanup on Thursday. The turkey will be provided and each person is asked to bring a dessert or side dish for the dinner. There will be a sign-up sheet in the lobby for all who wish to join in.
Starting this month, members of the Leadership Development Team will be asking individuals to accept an invitation to be included on the slate of nominees willing to serve as a member of the Board of Directors or as a member of the LDT.

One requirement common to both groups is that you have an interest in the overall needs and workings of the entire congregation. Important: serving on the Board or the LDT will not prevent you from being a member of other UUFWC committees, however, the time commitment, especially for Board members, is great.

Individually, the requirements and responsibilities for each are:

Leadership Development Team
- have an interest in helping the Fellowship grow its pool of leaders to serve in one or more area of our faith community programming and/or committee work.
- willing to commit to an hour-long monthly meeting
- willing to help the LDT prepare and present in-house development opportunities.
- able to serve the LDT on a three-year rotation.
- willing to help identify individuals willing and able to serve on the Board of Directors or on the LDT.

The Board of Directors*
- must be a member of the Fellowship
- willing to serve for a three-year staggered term
- to “represent the congregation in shaping the vision and long-term goals of the Fellowship” and to help “create policy and direction for the Executive Team (minister & staff administrator) and staff” (from “About Us” on the UUFWC webpage)
- to be willing to devote at least 2 hours per month to Board meetings, knowing that, as concerns arise between monthly meetings, more time may be needed.

* It is important to note that, during this time of transition, as we begin the search for a settled minister, a person who is serving on the Board of Directors, may NOT also serve on the search committee seeking to find our new minister.

We, as a congregation, will begin our “Next Ten Words” this month. On November 24 at 11:00am, members and friends are invited to join us in conversations about how we, as individuals and as Unitarian Universalists in covenant with each other, can and will address and undo racism.

Actions—changes in awareness, behavior—are “the next ten words”. We will begin to think about ways to be better ancestors as we confront and acknowledge our past:
- by working toward the dismantling of current slave institutions that are created by unjust incarceration practices,
- by becoming better by-standers as we stand in the way of and block discrimination when we see it, and
- by being more purposeful in our consumerism making small reparative acts like shopping at businesses owned by people of color.

There are many other “words” that will help us in our just efforts to change ourselves and affect change in our society. Together we’ll learn those words. Blessed be!
UU Inquiry Session - for our new friends of UUFWC
Our fall UU Inquiry session will be held November 24. The event takes place several times a year and is designed for those new to the congregation or for those who have never attended one of these sessions. You will learn just a little UU history, find out how the UUFWC works, and get to meet others that are new, as well as representatives from a couple of our committees. Snacks will be provided for the approximately one-hour session. It will take place shortly after the 11:00am service in the Triple-E classroom. Please RSVP so we can plan for you. If you have any questions or if you’d like to request childcare, please let Karen know by 11/17/19. Thanks!

Our newest member, Leah King shared the following about herself:
I grew up in Holmesville Ohio, moved away to find my own way, and came home to be with my family, who mean the most to me. I have focused my life in helping others find their own way.
Welcome Leah!

Adopt – A – Class 2019

Friends, it’s time to start thinking about our annual tradition of giving Christmas gifts to the children enrolled in the Wayne County Head Start. This year there are 90 children ages 3 to 5 years, and with the addition of a new toddler room, there are 9 children from 18 months to 3 years.

This year Head Start is again asking that we give non-gender specific toys, art supplies, puzzles, games, dolls, etc. They have given us a breakdown of ages so this year you may pick to give a gift for a toddler averaging two years old, a child averaging three years old, or a child averaging five years old.

Important dates:

Sunday, November 10: Sign-up begins in the lobby.

Sunday, December 8: Deadline for returning wrapped gifts.

The sign-up station will be set up in the northeast corner of the Fellowship lobby beginning November 10. Someone will be there to give you a numbered ticket and further instructions. The station will unavailable Monday, November 11 through Saturday, November 16, but will be available again on Sunday, November 17.

Please see Justine Sherwood if you have questions.
Social Action In Action

PEOPLE TO PEOPLE SUNDAY is NOVEMBER 17. In the spirit of Thanksgiving let us share with those who are less fortunate. Consider donating part of a Thanksgiving dinner: canned vegetables, canned yams, cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, canned gravy, potatoes, roll mixes, dessert mixes, Jello, canned fruit. No turkeys, please. As always, cash is welcome. Make checks payable to People to People and place in the labeled jar on the rear shelves.

The NOVEMBER OPEN PLATE, to be collected on SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24, will be donated to Trinity UCC in support of its longstanding breakfast program. A full breakfast is offered to the community five days a week thanks to the efforts of many loyal donors and volunteers (including UUs). The program provides a time for socializing as well as for enjoying a nourishing meal – basically a healing moment in what may be difficult circumstances. In the month of Thanksgiving we have the opportunity to give special thanks to our Trinity friends and neighbors!

CAKES FOR KIDS: For several years UUFWC volunteers have provided birthday cakes for children and their mothers temporarily living in the OneEighty shelter. Requests for cakes have become more frequent, so more volunteers are needed. Single layer 9” round or 8”x 8” square decorated cakes are provided and delivered to the OneEighty shelter. Decorating supplies are available at the UUFWC on top of the coffee cabinet in the kitchen and don’t have to be purchased. Sue Gross is willing to show you how to do simple decorations. If you would like to provide a cake, but don’t like to bake or decorate, cakes can be purchased at Buehler’s or Walmart. Buehler’s has a $14.95 small 2 layer cake which is decorated without additional cost. It also has smaller cakes available. Walmart will also decorate the cakes from their bakery. The lead time for cakes is usually short. If you enjoy baking, you might want to bake a few cakes and have them in your freezer for quick frosting and delivery. Contact Sue Gross to let her know you’re interested or for more information.

All Things Green

RECYCLING BIN: The green and yellow recycling bin which has been on the driveway for several years has been (or soon will be) removed. It is in bad condition, making it difficult to open and close the top, and is not emptied by the new owners of the recycling service very often. We encourage you to take your paper and cardboard items for recycling to Buehler’s Milltown store, a short distance away. Those recycling bins are in the parking lot behind the store.

CANADA GETTING HOTTER FASTER: Canada is warming at twice the rate of the rest of the world, according to a new climate change report by the country’s government. A study found that while the global average annual temperature has climbed 1.4 degrees F. since 1880, Canada’s has risen about three degrees F. since 1948. In the colder north of the country, temperatures have gone up even more. The authors warned that heat waves are set to become more frequent and intense, raising the risk of drought and wildfires, and that rising sea levels will cause more coastal flooding. Canada is experiencing more extreme temperature rises than the rest of the world in part because of the retreat of its glaciers and diminishing snowfall. Snow and ice reflect large amounts of solar radiation, and without that covering, more heat is absorbed by the ground. The Week 4/19/19

THE STUFF OF STARS  By Marion Dane Bauer  Illustrated by Ekua Holmes
P Bauer, Marion Dane

“In an astonishing unfurling of our universe, The Stuff of Stars takes readers from the trillionth of a second when our universe was born to the singularities that became each one of us. A seamless blend of science and art, this beautiful book reveals the composition of this world and beyond – and how we are all the stuff of stars.”

Quote from the inSpirit 2019-2020 catalog

A UU Genesis, this outstanding picture book unites illustrations and text to evoke the mystery and wonder of the Big Bang and our place in that creation. The illustrations, done in hand-marbled paper and collage, are vibrant and filled with movement and color. The text is poetic, spare, and powerful. This would make a wonderful gift.

DID YOU KNOW? For over 175 years (dating from the 1800’s), Unitarian Universalists have published collections of prayers and meditations. They have morphed over the years from prayer collections to Lenten manuals to meditation manuals (begun in 1961 when Unitarians and Universalists consolidated). Now the yearly publication is part of what is now called the inSpirit meditation series.

Our library has many of these publications. They have been removed from their magazine holders for easier access. You will find them on one of the white shelves labeled inSPIRIT MEDITATION SERIES.
