February Service Schedule
Sunday services are at 9:30am and 11:00am
Join us for coffee after the service.

February 2, 9:30 a.m.: Common Ground between Science and Religion [Rev. Jennie Barrington]
One Worship Service only this morning. Our Fellowship has an annual tradition of honoring “Darwin Day” this month, since Charles Darwin’s birthday was in February. This worship service will lift up ways that science and religion do not have to be in conflict with each other, inspired by the words and ideas of Richard Feynman.

February 2, 11:00 a.m.: Informational Session with the Architect
Please come to the architect’s presentation at 11:00 a.m. to hear the latest developments about expanding our building.

February 9: Glimmers of Hope [Rev. Jennie Barrington]
We are approaching the second anniversary of the mass shooting at the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School, in Parkland, Florida. Students who survived that shooting have become activists for safer gun laws. We can draw hope and inspiration from them, and from the namesake of their school, Marjory Stoneman Douglas, who was an activist herself.

February 16: The Sounds of Progressive Influence in a Sea of Conservativism [Rev. Jennie Barrington]
When Rev. Jennie lived in England in the mid 1980s, she discovered something delightful and inspiring, which was a progressive influence on that conservative culture, and even helped change the world. This true story will reinforce why what our Fellowship is doing is so needed, and why it’s so important that we keep doing the good works we are doing. We will also launch this year’s pledge drive.

February 23: Religious Liberty in America: A Constitutional Birthright [Steve Cook, CLM]
Explore the origins of religious freedom in the establishment and free exercise clauses of the First Amendment, with an overview of foundational Supreme Court cases.
Minister’s Meditation from Rev. Jennie Barrington

“Finding a photograph is often like picking up a piece from a jigsaw-puzzle box with the cover missing. There’s no sense of the whole. Each image is a mysterious part of something not yet revealed.”

[Susan Meiselas]

Once the busyness of Christmas was behind me, I suddenly realized that I was longing to do a jigsaw puzzle. Turns out I’m not the only one who loves to do puzzles in the winter. Maybe lots of us grew up spending time indoors, especially when the winter weather outdoors was uninviting, doing puzzles or playing board games that we had received as presents. I went to the Hallmark store and bought myself two new puzzles. What fun! I had forgotten that I’m good at them, and I’d forgotten how satisfying and relaxing it is. I mentioned this to several people who I’ve talked with in the past month. I thought they’d think this was a nerdy thing to do. To my surprise, they all responded happily that they, too, love doing puzzles! They even sounded a bit envious that I had been treating myself to this indulgent pastime. So now I am writing to encourage you, too, to indulge yourself in some enigmas that are satisfying to resolve, and hopefully also build community and camaraderie.

We have so many not-to-be-missed events coming up in the next few weeks! Planning and scheduling them has been like working on a puzzle. Your leadership and staff and I have all been taking great care to communicate well with you, and to respect regularly scheduled programs as much as we can. And I do not want to schedule too many not-to-be-missed events too closely together. For the Sunday morning events that are coming up, we want turn-out to be as high as possible. When you are not able to come to a certain event, we will do all we can to get the information out to all members and friends afterward. But there’s nothing like being together in person.

So, first off, please come on Sunday, February 2. There will be one worship service at 9:30 a.m. Then our architects will visit and, at 11:00 a.m., they’ll present us with the latest developments on expanding our building. Secondly, please come on February 16! My sermon will be, “The Sounds of Progressive Influence in a Sea of Conservativism.” And our delightful and hardworking Stewardship Team will step up and launch our pledge drive. And in March, please keep your eyes peeled for two essential Sundays in our interim work. On one Sunday, we will have a Transitions Coach visit us, explain the UUA’s best practices for forming a search committee and searching for a new settled minister, and answer all of your questions. And on a different Sunday in March, I will lead a “History Timeline Exercise.” We will name and lift up all that UUFWC can be proud of in its history. And we will also talk about any patterns or issues that we should name now, in order to process them before a new minister starts in August of 2021.

The jigsaw puzzles I’ve been doing caused me to remember something that was a rule in my household when I was growing up. We were not allowed to look at the picture on the cover of the box! I guess that rule was to instill in us rigor and discipline. And I can appreciate that. But I assure you, in the many challenging undertakings ahead during this interim period, your staff, leadership, and I will be “looking at the cover of the box” whenever we feel a need to. We will be availing ourselves of research, picking the brains of wise and experienced people, and not reinventing wheels unnecessarily, and continuing to elicit your ideas, feelings, and feedback. An interim period is a large puzzle made up of several smaller puzzles, each of which has beauty and charm. Please know how satisfying and rewarding it is for me to keep solving our Fellowship’s enigmas alongside you.
A Message from the Stewardship Committee

Each year, we ask members and friends to pledge to the operating budget. Your pledge supports the quality programming and resources we all share. And as you well know, the UUFWC is growing in exciting ways. With your financial support, we can ensure that our fellowship continues to be a welcoming and supportive refuge.

The Stewardship Team – Danni Schantz-chair, Scot Armstrong, Tony Beery, Bonnie Groop, Gene Barnes, Mary Wicks

LGBTQ Activities? Meet February 6 to consider!

We celebrated the advent of same-sex marriage across the country in 2015! Members of this Fellowship advocated strongly for same-sex marriage and equal rights with community rallies, educational activities, and worship services at UU. But lesbian, gay, bi-sexual, transgender and other individuals are still fired, denied housing, and more. The Administration has banned transgender people from serving in the military. There are assaults on LGBTQI people in many arenas.

Is it time to be active again, in our Fellowship and community? Everyone interested in the topic is invited and encouraged to discuss this at the UU Fellowship on Thursday, February 6 at 7:00 p.m.

We need your enthusiasm, your ideas, and your leadership to continue to serve our members and community! Questions? Talk to Helen Ostermiller, Mady Noble or Justine Sherwood.

Rev. Jennie’s February Office Hours (Slightly Changed)

Rev. Jennie’s office hours for February are Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., and Thursdays, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and by appointment. She is also often at the Fellowship on Fridays during the day. It is best to contact her first to be sure she is not at a meeting in the wider community. The best way to contact her is her work email.

Also, many of the sermons and worship services, by Rev. Jennie and guests-in-the-pulpit, are posted on UUFWC’s website: www.uufwc.org/worship/past-services/.
From the Board President, David Francis

I have tried to focus these monthly columns on specific themes. This month I want to focus on membership.

First, a story about my history with the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Wayne County (UUFWC). I was raised in Pasadena’s Neighborhood Church, which dropped its affiliation with the Congregational Church and joined the Unitarian Universalist Association in 1972. Given my history with liberal religion and Unitarian Universalism, the UUFWC was a natural choice when we moved to Wooster and were looking for a spiritual home in which to raise our daughters. I’ve attended the UUFWC and volunteered as a Religious Education facilitator for nearly 25 years. Despite that long history, I did not become a member until five years ago. I was happy to donate time and pledge financial resources to support the Fellowship, a role I would describe as a committed friend. The UUFWC was a place where I trusted others to make decisions. I also felt that spirituality entailed a lot more than church membership. I still feel that way, I still believe that spiritual and moral commitment take more than signing a book. I still trust the members of the Fellowship to make wise decisions. My change from active friend to member was fueled by the Leadership Development Team’s challenge to become more involved.

Becoming a member means joining. Joining implies combining, uniting, and connecting. Becoming a member makes the Fellowship stronger. Becoming a member also carries special rights. These rights include voting during our annual meeting in May. We are a democratic organization with freely chosen leaders and policies determined by the membership. Our bylaws state “Any person aged 16 years or over, or younger if they have completed the Fellowship’s Coming of Age Program, who is in sympathy with its purpose and who has signed the Membership Book may become a voting member of this Fellowship.” Further, all “persons who will have been members for at least 60 days” are eligible to vote. The upcoming fellowship meeting in May will be a chance to exercise the rights and privileges of membership based on UUFWC policy.

As a congregation, we have another important task in the near future: nominating and electing a search committee for our settled minister. The Board of Directors is seeking clarification and guidance from the Unitarian Universalist Association concerning the requirement of membership to serve on the search committee for a settled minister. The UUA guidelines encourage us to be mindful in our process of selecting a search committee with the goal of electing a group that represents, is trusted by, and is in touch with both history and changes in the congregation. Details of the process can be found at the link here: www.uua.org/sites/live-new.uua.org/files/settlement_handbook.pdf. In our reading of the UUA Settlement Handbook, we do not see a clear mandate concerning the role of committed friends and members, and therefore we understand the need for discussion, input, and guidance. If you have strong feelings about the makeup of the search committee, I invite you to share them with me or a member of the Board. The congregation will elect a search committee following the nomination process, and this election is explicitly by a vote of the members. If you want a vote, become a member.

Membership is the most complete way in which you can be involved in the fellowship.
Building Expansion Update

Rothschild Doyno Collaborative (the architecture firm we are working with) will return to speak with us on Sunday, February 2 to update us on the progress that they’ve made.

Please join us Sunday, February 2 at 11:00 a.m.!

We want to hear from you! Put your thoughts on a sticky note on the plans, share them with a member of the Building Expansion Committee.

From the Racial Justice Team

Monthly conversation: Understanding Race.

The Racial Justice team will host a discussion on the fourth Sunday of each month, from 11:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Our next meeting is Sunday, February 23, in the EEE room.

This subject of this month’s meeting is Re-Learn the History of Racism, and will be led by Cindie Slater.

> “Time and again, racist ideas have not been born and bred in the cradle of ignorant, hateful, or unpatriotic minds. Time and again, powerful and brilliant men and women have produced racist ideas in order to justify the racist policies of their era, in order to redirect the blame for their era’s racial disparities away from those policies and onto Black people.”
> –Ibram X Kendi

- How much do you know about the history of colonization and racism?
- How does Dr. Kendi’s quote make you think about the history you learned and did not learn in schools?

Come join us in conversation

No sign-up is necessary.

We will continue to meet throughout the year. Attendees can join us any time they are able. The chapters that we cover are in sequence, but each chapter also stands alone. All are welcome to join us as their time and interest permits.
Lifespan Religious Education

Many of you are familiar with the Our Whole Lives (OWL) sexuality education program. We are so fortunate as a Fellowship to have had the leadership, parent interest, and volunteer support to have been offering this program for nearly 20 years!.

In line with several of our Unitarian Universalist Principles, OWL provides honest, scientifically accurate information about sexuality. Classes are age appropriate, build self-acceptance and self-esteem, foster healthy relationships, and improve decision making. The classes also develop rapport among participants and build community—an important piece of attending the Fellowship for folks of any age. For these reasons and more, we are proud to offer OWL.

This winter, we are offering elementary OWL. The kindergarten to second grade OWL curriculum supports parents in educating children about birth, babies, bodies and families. Many thanks to our wonderful K-2nd OWL facilitators Dae Evans and Jon Sprunger (pictured above).

The fourth through sixth grade curriculum covers topics like values, body image, puberty, gender and sexual identity, peer pressure, and healthy relationships. Many thanks to our wonderful 4-6th OWL facilitators Dan Stavnezer and Kristen Willie (pictured to the right).

For information about Children’s Religious Education please contact Chelsea Churpek, Director of Religious Education, at chelsea.uufwc@gmail.com. For information on Adult Religious Education please contact RE Committee Chair Jo Harper at johannahharper@gmail.com.
A Message from Youth Community

Youth Community is open to all youth in grades 7-12. UUFWC Youth gather on Sunday Mornings (except MultiGen Service Days). They enjoy social time, plan activities, and participate in service projects.

Have a Magical Good Time at the

6th Annual Cocoa House

Saturday, February 22 @ 6:00pm - 8:00pm @ the UUFWC

Cocoa House is an evening where the kids and youth of our congregation can showcase their talents! Youth Community members (grades 7-12) will emcee the event, perform in skits, and auction off goods and services produced by youth/youth allies. Children and youth are encouraged to perform in the talent show portion of the evening and win prizes in a silent “ticket auction.” Hot cocoa and sweet treats will be available by donation throughout the evening.

This will be a fun evening for congregants, family, and friends alike! Cocoa House is a social outreach and fundraising event for Youth Community. The proceeds of all donated and auctioned items will go towards our Coming of Age programming.

PERFORMERS NEEDED! Children and Youth (ages 18 and under) are encouraged to be a part of Cocoa House! Find the form in your “This week in UUFWC RE” email, see a Youth Community member on Sunday, or contact Jessica.

Sign up by 2/9.

If you would like to donate a prize for the Auction, contact Jessica or Youth Community Member.

Mark Your Calendars:

- Cookie Baking at Peg’s ~ Sunday, February 2nd at 4pm
- Cocoa House & Lock in ~ Saturday, February 22nd

If you would like to learn more about Youth Community, contact Jessica Eikleberry, Youth Ministries Coordinator, at ymc@uufwc.org. Office hours are by appointment.
Music News

There will be no Choir and Folk Orchestra rehearsal on February 5.

Special Music. We want you to share your musical gifts with us! If you would like to perform special music during the service, please contact Sharon Delgadillo. Solos, Duets, Groups, welcome!

New! Coming in March - Karaoke Coffee House. Come join us with music, laughter, yummy treats, strong coffee and songs to sing of your choice!!!

For information about our regular music groups, please see the Monthly Meetings on Page 11.

Membership News

Wine, Cheese and Conversation!!!!!!

- Now an annual favorite!
- Enjoy conversation in a relaxed atmosphere.
- Sponsored by the Membership Committee.
- Saturday, February 29
- 7:00 p.m. until we are ready to go home.
- Membership Committee members will supply wine, cheese, crackers and other munchies, but encourage attendees to bring their favorite wine and additional finger foods.
- We’ll have small tables set up with some organized conversation starters, so even the introverts in our fellowship should feel comfortable as we get to know each other a little better.
- This is a perfect event for those who are new to our congregation.
- If you need childcare please let us know by February 22.
- Sign up is required as assigned seating will take place for part of the evening to optimize mingling.
- Sign up sheets will be available in the lobby starting early in February, but mark your calendars now!

Coming next month: Spring UU Inquiry Session for newcomers. More information and date to come on this event that allows you to learn more about the UUFWC and how to get involved.
Social Action In Action

PEOPLE TO PEOPLE SUNDAY is FEBRUARY 16. We will be collecting toilet paper. The rolls seem to get smaller all the time. Cash donations are always welcome. Checks can be made payable to People to People and placed in the labeled jar on the rear shelves.

THE OPEN PLATE COLLECTION will be on FEBRUARY 23. The donations will be given to ONE EIGHTY (formerly STEPS and EVERY WOMAN’S HOUSE), a private non-profit organization which provides comprehensive addiction, domestic violence, mental health and behavioral health services to the people of Holmes and Wayne counties. Examples of their programs include Community Health and Wellness Activities, Housing and Supportive Services, and a Rape Crisis Center. Our community is not immune to the ravages of substance, drug and alcohol abuse. The services of One Eighty are truly needed. Please give as generously as you are able to a very worthy cause.

The collection of toiletries and personal care items for the WAYNE COLLEGE FOOD PANTRY will continue until February 9. The Wooster Hope Center maintains this pantry to assist students who are struggling to complete their education and sustain their families. The Social Action Committee has agreed to help provide toiletries and personal care items. Needed are full size containers of body wash, shampoo and conditioner, deodorant, toothbrushes/toothpaste, toilet paper, sanitary needs for women, dish detergent, laundry soap, cleaning supplies and diapers. For more information contact Gail Carter.

BIRTHDAY CAKE SUNDAY is coming on March 8. More information in the March newsletter.

All Things Green

RECYCLING SURVEY The Climate Change Working Group of the Wooster Interfaith Justice Committee is conducting a survey of recycling services and would like you to share your comments, questions and complaints about the recycling service you use for home recycling. This information will be shared with the City of Wooster which is planning to improve communication about its recycling program. If you live outside of Wooster, please provide your comments as well. They may offer other useful viewpoints. A sheet is posted on the All Things Green bulletin board in the rear of Strawn Hall until February 10. Please take a couple of minutes to record your thoughts on recycling (or put a sticky note on it). For more information, contact Betty Schuler. Thank you!

NATURE STUDY SERIES The Wilderness Center is offering a new series “Nature’s Master Class” at Local Roots. This six part series will explore the numerous ways animals and plants have mastered the land, sea and air. Plants and animals go to great lengths to secure the survival of the species. Explore the incredible ways that life begets life. The series consists of Masters of Courtship, Masters of Might, Masters of Sleep, Masters of Hoarding, Masters of Flight and Masters of Camouflage. Classes will be held at Local Roots on February 13, 20, 27, March 5, 12, 19 at 6:30 p.m. Classes are $10 each or $45 for the entire 6 part series. Call The Wilderness Center at 330-369-5235 to pre-register for the series or pay at the door for a single class.

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE COLLECTION The Wayne County Commissioners plan to use the former Wayne County Board of Development Disabilities bus garage at the foot of Oak Hill Road for a drop off household hazardous waste collection site. This is in cooperation with the Wayne County Health Department and the Joint Solid Waste Management District. Watch for more information.
Library News

Described below is a title new to the Fellowship library:

BREATHE: A LETTER TO MY SONS  By Imani Perry  306.85 Perr 2019

“Emotionally raw and deeply reflective, Imani Perry issues an unflinching challenge to society to see Black children as deserving of humanity. She admits fear and frustration for her African American sons in a society that is increasingly racist and at times seems irredeemable. However, as a mother, feminist, writer, and intellectual, Perry offers an unfettered expression of love – finding beauty and possibility in life – and she exhorts her children and their peers to find the courage to chart their own paths and find steady footing and inspiration in Black tradition.

Perry draws upon the ideas of figures such as James Baldwin, W.E.B. Du Bois, Emily Dickinson, Toni Morrison, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Ida B. Wells. She shares vulnerabilities and insights from her own life and from encounters in places as varied as the West Side of Chicago; Birmingham, Alabama; and New England prep schools.”
